Gender Sensitization Awareness Programme
World Women's Day 8th March 2021
Women's Day Programmed
Report

Savitribai Phule Pune University, Students Welfare Board and Karmaveer Ramraoji Arts, Science & Commerce College jointly celebrated "Women's Day" on 8th March 2021. On this National Womens day program achieve the goal of creating awarness among student about gender equality and their rights.

College students should be capable in mentally physically and intellectually and self reliance also should be develop in them. It is very essential to develop a positive attitude among the students as well as spread awareness about gender equality and their rights in every field. Every woman has the power to play all the difficult roles. The contribution of womens is not mearly bound with home but they are also hand in development of the country. To give this inspiration the department of "Gender Sensitization Awareness" arranged he program on the day 8th March 2021.

The aim of this activity requires the holistic development of the students. Not only school curriculum important for student but also need physical fitness because a strong mind grows in healthy body. Therefore Dr.Kavita Nikam the chief guest of the program gave an important lecture on "Covid Time and Remedies" and how to care our self in covid period During lecture dr asserted that it is necessary to give courage to that covid victim without ignoring them. We can avoid infection by taking proper care of this disease without fear, she also suggest that wash hand properly with soap, use sanitizer, were mask, do not go outside without any reason and keep safe distance etc.

Other guest present for the program.

The chairman of Deola press association hon.Mr.Sanjay Deore also suggests that "Stay home, Stay safe." As well as he also shares experience during this period that how all the news reached the citizens uninterruptedly and how the journalists did their best to maintain vigilance. Honorable Deore advised all the students to live life with positivity, confidence, awareness and responsibility. To achieve the goal of national unity, gender equality the Maharashtra press Association felicitated the Covid warrior who faithfully carried out his responsibilities and duties faithfully regardless of their lives during this covid period were also honored. Also were honored covid warriors college professors, some volunteers from the N.S.S.

The chairperson of this program was the college principal Hitendra Aher appreciated all the covid warriors. The program was introduced by Dr. Malti Aher (Vice Prin.) The coordinator of Gender Sensitization Awareness program Prof. Dr. Jaymala Chandratre guided on Gender Equality. It is necessary to stop the discrimination between men and women which is inculcated in the minds of children from an early age. Giving information about the Equal Civil Right Act in the country, she said that the law gives the right to protect women's rights feelings and equality legally. But it is equally important that it is in force some laws remain only on paper but reality they do not seem to be complete. All the professors, students of the college were present in program. The programs anchoring were conducted by Miss Anjali Aher.
